Calling Out ReTHUGliQans For Promoting Communist Policies on Women and Pregnancy

Call the offices of your ReTHUGlican legislators' and complain — often.

Jam the phone with calls. Make it impossible for staff to do anything but answer the phone. Be calm and courteous to whomever answers the phone whether it is the public official or a staff member. I'm going to use the example of calling and speaking with a member of a public officials staff. Say something like this.

"Hi! My name is ___ and I am a registered voter and a proud American. Members of my family have served proudly in the armed services throughout many decades to preserve the freedoms of our nation.

I resent that the ReTHUGliQan Party has adopted the Romanian communist dictator's policy, which elevated every pregnancy to be government property. The pregnancies in my family are never the government's property.

If my legislator wants to live in a Communist Country, I'm sure that there are a few that would be welcoming. So, please, tell them to back off and remember this is America.

Be American!

Thank you."

Explainer

The first part of the phone call has the staffer listening to you. You've said the magic words: "I'm a voter in your district."

Next, nearly all of us have family members who have served proudly in our nation's military, and it's very important to use that in this conversation.

The values that you are espousing with these words will resonate with the staff members – or with the legislators should you talk directly with them.

The beauty of this language is that the staff members – or public officials – will probably think that they are listening to one of their own supporters.

Well, that is, until you start to point out that the public official is espousing communist policies. The staffer or public official will be stunned!

Good. That's where we want them. Stunned, dazed, and confused. Sputtering all kinds of defensive things.

Staffer: "Well, ma'am, I -I- I don't think Rep. StupidOverHere is a communist. He's a Republican."

You: "Then what in the heck is he doing espousing communist policies?!"

Staffer: "Well, he -he – he just believes . . ."

You: "Look, I know what he believes. He believes that we should turn America into Communist Romania. I'm not having any of it!"

"Tell him to renounce his communist ways! BE AMERICAN! Thank you. I need to go now. Have a good day."

Be polite and firm, delightfully indignant and super sweet at the end!

You may be asked for your name and contact information. That's a routine question. So, provide it so that the public official will know that you are a voter in the district.

Relax and see how much fun you can have with these kinds of conversations!! You will have fun and give yourself a nice boost of positive energy.

Think of the stories you can share be it in person, over the phone, and on social media. Be sure to tag #HellHathNoFury!
